

Congregation Edmond J. Safra

Little Roots Program

Ages 17 months and up Wednesdays 10:20- 11:35am

Rachel Levy M.S SLP CCC will lead classes for mother and child that will include various theme centered activities such as arts and crafts, baking and circle time encompassing Jewish themes and values. Age appropriate linguistic concepts are targeted through play and experiential learning.

Rachel is a PROMPT trained speech-language pathologist. She has a particular interest in specific language impairment in children and has experience working with children and families on an individual basis and within school and home settings. She has enjoyed running the Little Roots Program at the Edmond J. Safra Synagogue since spring 2008.

Joanie Leeds will dazzle the children together with their mothers as they learn to explore the world of music, movement and instruments while incorporating the theme of the day into her musical renditions.

Joanie has taken NYC by storm warming the hearts of students, parents and teachers everywhere! Singing and playing all types of music from your child's favorite tunes to her upbeat originals found on "City Kid!" the excitement in her classes, birthday parties and concerts is unmatched!
{HYPERLINK "http://www.citykidmusic.com"}

January 6, 2010- May 12, 2010 (16 sessions) $560

*no classes will be held 2/10, 2/17, 3/31

If you are interested in seeing how the classes break down into themes and each day's schedule, please open the "theme schedule" attachment.

For registration please contact Alissa Shams: 212-754-9555 ext.11

{HYPERLINK "mailto:Alissa@ejsny.org"}

Edmond J. Safra Synagogue 11 east 63rd street New York, NY 10021