Learn to communicate with your non-verbal child. By understanding and reacting to your child's signals you will become more attuned to their emotions and help develop a well rounded and happy child. Mother-child musical interactions will be incorporated. Meet other mothers like you!

In this class you will learn:

1. To understand your infant and yourself
2. How to read your infant's signals
3. How to respond to your infants signals
4. To encourage playfulness
5. To enhance your child's pre-verbal skills to better develop speech and language
